TOURISME DURABLE

The label of an inspirational destination

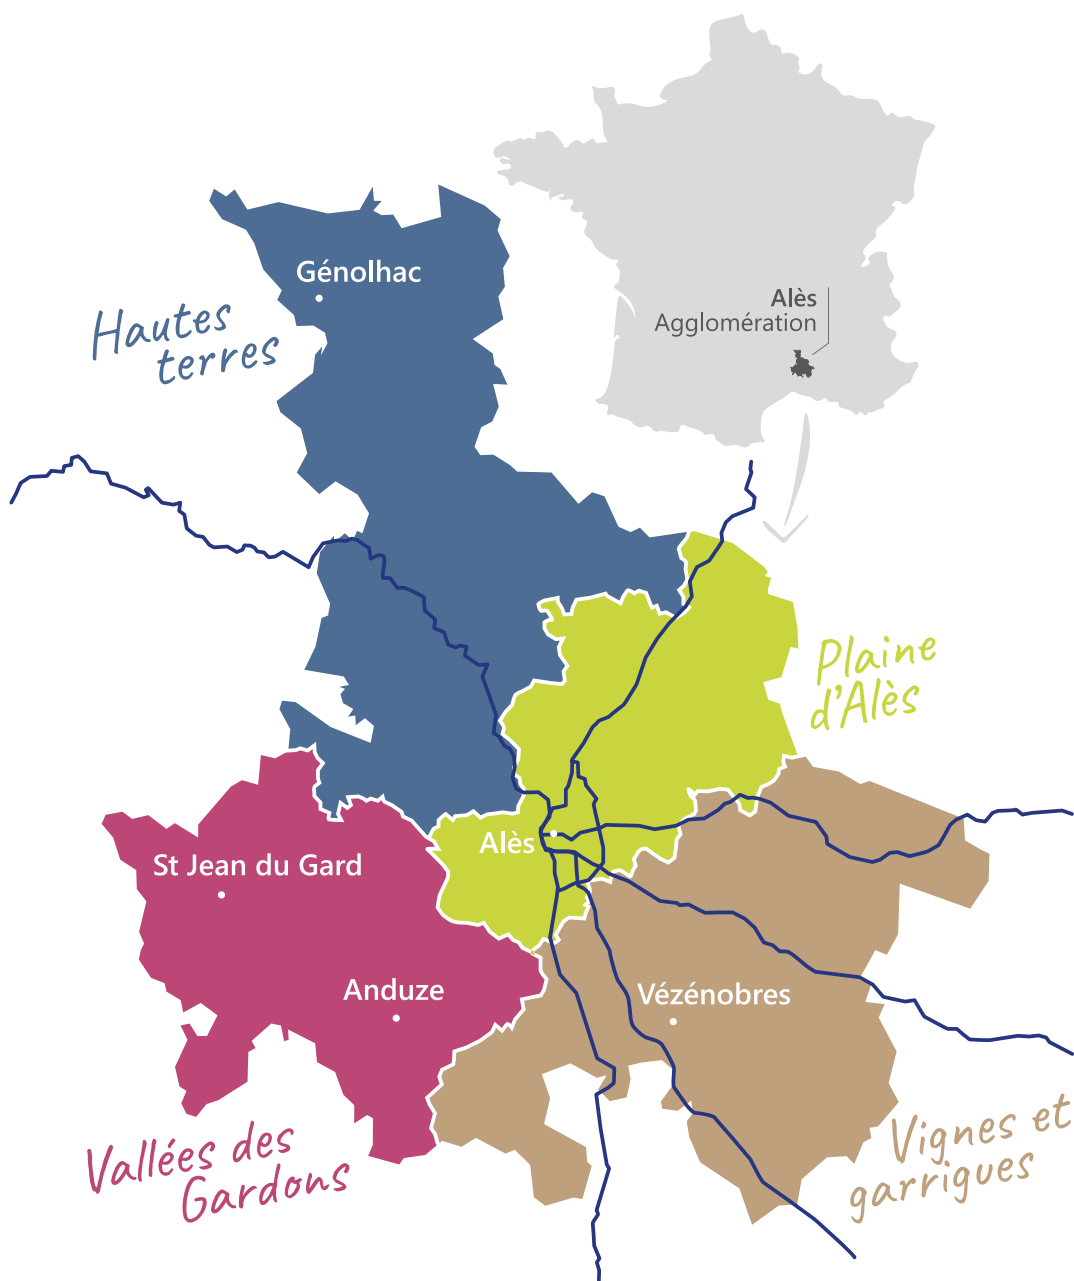

Facing the necessity of offering touristic services that take into consideration the economy of resources, Cévennes Tourisme has launched its own label, tailor-made to meet the challenges of the destination.

There are a number of Sustainable Tourism labels, but the Cévennes Tourisme label goes further than a simple reference system! It brings together professionals committed to offering responsible services based on shared values, and it complements the Esprit Parc brand.

Find out which service providers have been awarded the label in this guide or on our website www.cevennes-tourisme.fr

This label is designed to support professionals in their progress towards 3 levels of certification :

Welcome to the south of France, in the heart of an exceptional region that will satisfy your desire for sensations and discovery...

A warm, sun-drenched environment, a remarkable heritage, wide-open spaces, cultural, sporting and leisure activities and culinary delights...

Everything is here to make your vacation a success !

Hautes terres

Highlands : The foothills of Mont-Lozère, from La Grand'Combe to Génolhac, offer breathtaking panoramas. This area, protected by the Parc National des Cévennes, is an ideal place for discovery and relaxation. Don't miss: the castles of Portes and Aujac, the Maison du mineur, bathing spots, hiking trails and delicious local cuisine !

Plaine d'Alès

Plain of Alès : Alès has a multi-faceted character, combining a gentle way of life with the vitality of a city. There's always something happening! You can enjoy a show or a museum, go shopping, refresh yourself in the shady parks full of flowers... or take up the challenge of motor sports !

Vallées des Gardons

Valleys of the Gardons : It's the ideal playground for lovers of hiking, outdoor activities and river bathing! Between Anduze, Mialet and Saint-Jean-du-Gard, you'll discover a variety of landscapes, unspoilt countryside crossed by the pure, lively waters of the Gardons, and remarkable sites that invite you to discover them.

Vignes et garrigues

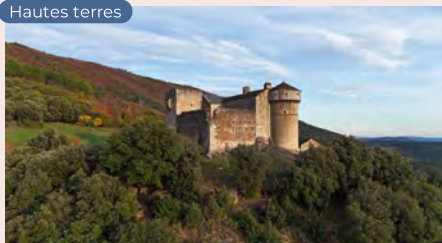

Vines and garrigues : This area, dominated by the Mont Bouquet, is very popular with paragliders and rock-climbers. It's also home to a thousand and one treasures, including charming villages such as Vézénobres. This magnificent medieval town bears witness to 1,000 years of architecture and history.
