

A family of four is having a picnic in a lush green field. A man in a bright green shirt and a woman in a brown patterned dress and a wide-brimmed straw hat are sitting on a colorful striped blanket. A young boy in a blue shirt and a straw hat is also on the blanket, and a woman in a blue patterned dress is sitting next to him. They are surrounded by large, leafy trees, and the scene is bathed in bright sunlight.
